

2010 Antiquarian... and Collector Thursdays

Summer Events

One of the events scheduled for summer 2010 is the weekly date with the Antiquarian... and Collector Thursdays in Piazza Casabianca from 17 June to 2 September 2010, beginning at 5 p.m.

The Thursday marketplace is one of Jesolo's long-standing traditions: for fifteen years, it has been a prestigious showcase for the world of antiques, offering many opportunities for fans to purchase items.

About 30 antique dealers and collectors come to town each week to put their best offerings on display: furniture, paintings, antique laces, valuable costume jewelry, books, magazines, collectibles, prints and many other rarities of great value.

Antiquarian... and Collector Thursdays have become one of Jesolo's venerable traditions, an appointment that – although remaining fresh year after year – manages to remain true to its history.
